

Creating an Account and Login

Creating an Account

On any page of the website, click 'Join'.

The screenshot shows the Historypin website homepage. At the top, a navigation bar includes links for Map, Collections, Tours, Community, Pin, Join, and Login. The 'Join' link is highlighted with a pink arrow from a callout box. The main header features the 'historypin' logo and the tagline 'Pin your history to the world', along with a note that 51,663 photos and stories have been pinned and an 'Explore the Map' button. A featured story titled 'Laughing over the Fence' by trishymouse, 1928-1934, is displayed with a photo of two women and a text box. Below this are three video thumbnails: 'Historypin in 90 seconds', 'What's new on Historypin 2.0?', and 'Tour some of the best content'. A 'Some of the best' section shows a grid of photo thumbnails and a 'Pin your own' button. The footer contains three columns: 'We've won a Webby' with a trophy image, 'Global Launch' with a 'MUSEUM OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK' logo, and 'Historypin App' with an iPhone image.

Creating an Account

If you have a Gmail address, use your Gmail address and password to login.

The screenshot shows the Historypin website's login and registration interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for 'Map', 'Collections', 'Tours', 'Community', 'Pin', 'Join', and 'Login'. The main heading is 'historypin' in a stylized font. Below it, the text reads 'Sorry to butt in' and 'Historypin uses Google Accounts to keep your login details safe and secure. If you already have a Google Account you can login straight away; if you don't then just follow these simple instructions.'

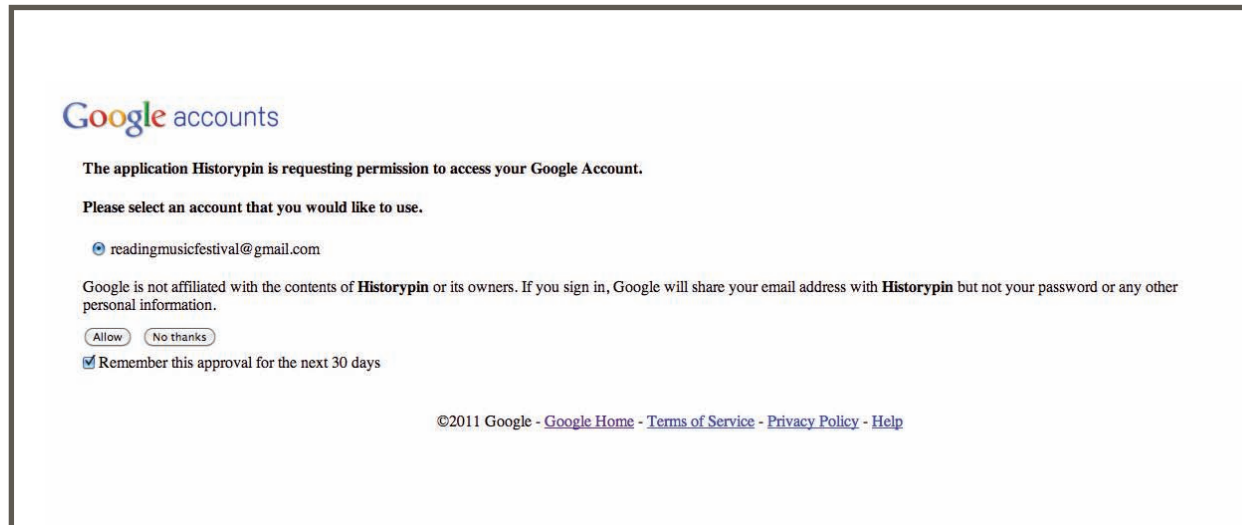

There are two main options for users:

- I already have a Google Account: This option includes a prominent pink 'Login' button.
- I don't have a Google Account: This option includes a list of three steps for registration and a prominent pink 'Register now' button.

At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with copyright information: '© 2011 We Are What We Do Home | About | FAQs | How to | Community | We Are What We Do | Contact | Blog | Twitter | App | Terms & Conditions' and a partnership logo with Google.

You need a Gmail address to use Historypin, so if you don't have one click here to follow the steps and create one. Then come back to Historypin.com and click 'Pin'.

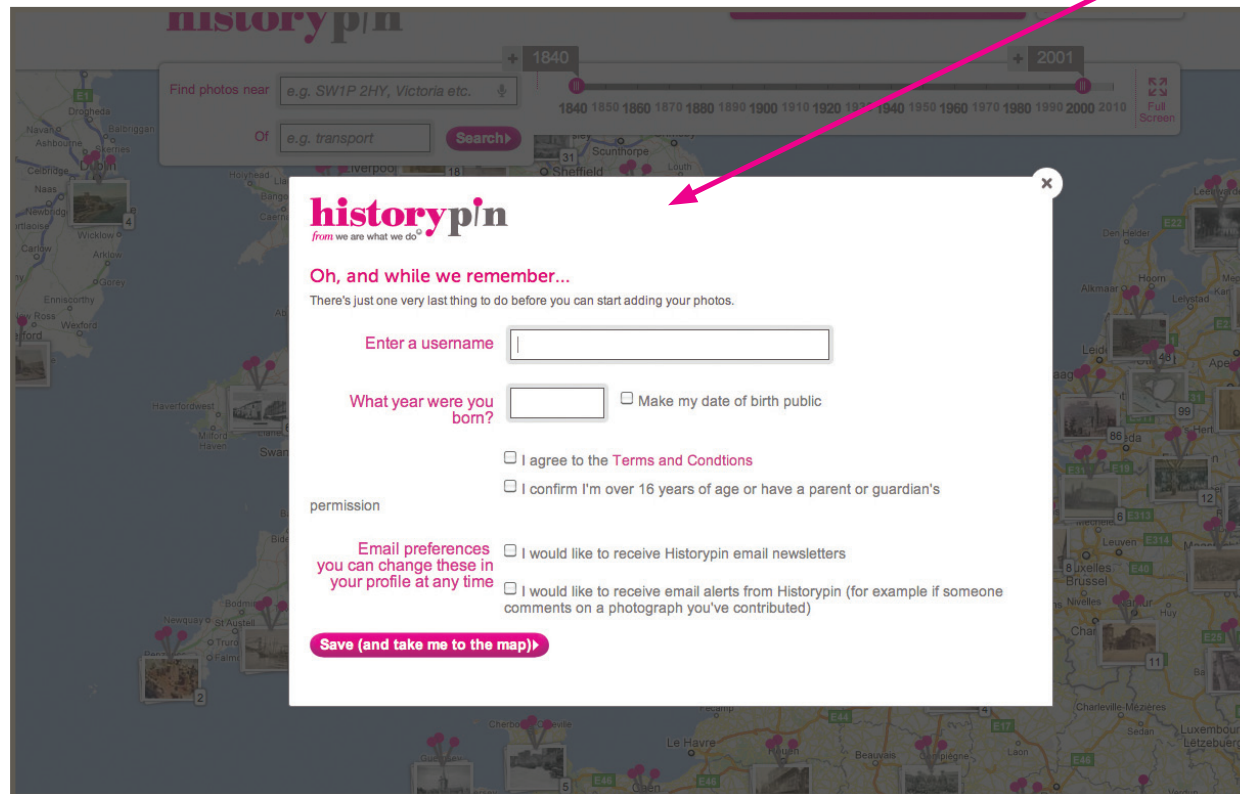

Logging in

When you first login to Historypin, you will see this message. It is checking that you are happy to allow your Gmail address to be used as your Historypin login. Click 'Allow'.

Creating a Username

Here you can enter a username of your choice, read and agree to our Terms and Conditions and choose to receive email updates.

The screenshot shows the Historypin website interface. At the top, there is a search bar with the text "Find photos near" and a dropdown menu showing "e.g. SW1P 2HY, Victoria etc.". Below the search bar, there is a "Search" button. The main content area is a map with various locations marked. A modal form is overlaid on the map, titled "historypin" with the tagline "from we are what we do". The form contains the following fields and options:

- Oh, and while we remember...
There's just one very last thing to do before you can start adding your photos.
- Enter a username [text input field]
- What year were you born? [text input field] Make my date of birth public
- I agree to the Terms and Conditions
- I confirm I'm over 16 years of age or have a parent or guardian's permission
- Email preferences you can change these in your profile at any time
 I would like to receive Historypin email newsletters
 I would like to receive email alerts from Historypin (for example if someone comments on a photograph you've contributed)
- Save (and take me to the map) [button]